Each Party agrees that all trade name, trademark, service mark, copyright, patent, trade secret, domain name and all other intellectual and industrial property rights anywhere in the world, including moral rights, and all applications, provisional applications, registrations, continuations and renewals thereof, and all associated goodwill (present or future) in and to each Party’s respective products and services (including modifications and derivatives), are and will, as among the parties, be owned by and vested in that party or its licensors, notwithstanding any use of terms such as “purchase,” “sale” or similar language within the Agreement.
3. Marks. During the term of this Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Program Appendix, each Party grants to the other Party a non-transferable, non-exclusive, license to reproduce and display Marks in connection with the marketing and sale of the Products and Services covered under this Agreement. “Marks” means the respective logos, trade names, trademarks, and service marks that either Party authorizes in writing for use by the other Party in marketing the respective Party’s products or services. For two (2) years after the termination of this Agreement Recipient shall hold Confidential Information in confidence and not disclose or use the Confidential Information, directly or indirectly, in any form, by any means, or for any purpose. Recipient shall only disclose the Confidential Information to its employees and independent contractors, to the extent such persons have a need to know such information for the purposes described in this Agreement, and provided such employees and independent contractors shall be obligated in writing to comply with terms and conditions no less protective than those set forth in this section. Recipient will not reverse, engineer or modify the Confidential Information for any purpose whatsoever. Recipient shall protect the Confidential Information using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information as Recipient uses to protect its own confidential information. Recipient shall notify the Discloser in writing immediately upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information or any other breach of these confidentiality obligations and shall reasonably cooperate with the Discloser to regain possession of such Confidential Information and prevent further unauthorized use and disclosure. All Confidential Information is provided "AS IS" and without any warranty (express or implied). Partner or TS may reference its relationship with the other, in the normal course of business including during earnings calls, discussions with analysts, meetings with the press, customer briefings, general marketing activities, and in regulatory filings.

5. Fees and Taxes

5.1. Fees. If Partner acquires Products and/or Services directly from TS under the Agreement, TS will invoice Partner as set forth herein and may require receipt of a purchase order for any amounts due to TS; provided, however, that any terms contained in such purchase order will not amend, supplement or modify the terms of the Agreement or be binding on TS. Fees will be as indicated in each Program Appendix and will be due and payable in U.S. Dollars within thirty (30) days from the date of invoice. Partner must pay all sums due to TS on a prepaid basis and Payment of the Fees to TS is not contingent on payment by third parties to Partner. All Fees paid are non-refundable. All amounts not paid when due will accrue interest daily until paid in full at the lesser of 1.5% per month or the highest rate permissible by law. Partner will reimburse TS for all costs and expenses incurred by TS in connection with the collection of overdue amounts, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' or legal fees.

5.2. Taxes. All amounts payable shall be exclusive of any Taxes. In addition to any amounts due for Products or Services, Partner will pay to TS an amount equal to any Taxes arising from or relating to this Agreement, including without limitation sales, service, use or value-added taxes, which are paid or are payable by TS or present TS with valid tax exemption documentation. "Taxes" means any form of taxation, levy, duty, charge, contribution or impost of whatever nature and by whatever authority imposed (including without limitation any fine, penalty, surcharge or interest), exclusive of any taxes based on the net income of TS. Should Partner be required under any applicable law or regulation, domestic or foreign, to withhold or deduct any portion of the payments due to TS, then the sum payable to TS will be increased by the amount necessary to yield to TS an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no withholdings or deductions been made. TS may, at its own expense, verify such Records to determine Partner's compliance with this Agreement. Such verification may take the form of requests for information, documents or records (with which Partner shall respond promptly), on-site visits (in respect of which Partner hereby grants the requisite access), or both. Partner agrees to act reasonably and to cooperate with TS in relation to such verifications. Any on-site visit will occur during regular business hours at Partner's offices, and will not interfere unreasonably with Partner's business activities. For an on-site visit, TS will give Partner at least ten (10) day's prior written notice of the date of each visit.

Termination of this Agreement shall not affect any agreements, if applicable, between TS and any End User. “End User” is defined in the Program Appendices.
