Course Information

Title: The Creative Curriculum® for Preschool: Foundation

Duration: 10 hours (self-paced)

Continuing Education Units: 1.0 CEU

This course is closed-captioned.

Course Description

General Description: This course helps preschool teachers build a strong knowledge base supporting their comprehensive understanding of best practices in early childhood. Learners will gain the essential knowledge they need to offer developmentally appropriate experiences. They will also explore strategies for applying this understanding to their own practice by using the objectives for development and learning to individualize instruction and support children at every level. Upon completion of this course, learners will receive a certificate of achievement showing that he or she has been awarded 1.0 Continuing Education Unit (CEU).

Learning Objectives: Learners completing this course will be able to apply the objectives for development and learning to individualize instruction and teach intentionally, set up classroom interest areas to support children's development and learning, plan meaningful experiences to support learning in the content areas, confidently assess children's development and learning, and create a positive classroom community.

Course Structure: This online course is available through the Develop area of MyTeachingStrategies®. The course is divided into six interest that make up the foundation for what we believe to be the most important elements of The Creative Curriculum® for Preschool.

- 1) Using the Objectives to Teach Intentionally (1 hour, 20 minutes)
- 2) Supporting Development and Learning in the Interest Areas (2 hours, 10 minutes)
- 3) How Teacher–Child Interactions Support Content Learning (1 hour, 55 minutes)
- 4) Assessing Children's Development and Learning (1 hour, 10 minutes)
- 5) Creating a Classroom Community (1 hour, 40 minutes)
- 6) Individualizing Instruction (1 hour, 45 minutes)

Each interest contains 5-8 learning experiences that present information in a variety of formats, including tutorials (slideshows, interactives, and articles), excerpts from The Creative Curriculum® foundational volumes, and application exercises that require learners to reflect on their own practice and apply their new knowledge. The course is self-guided and self-paced—teachers can view the interests and activities in any order and pause/return to the course at any time.

Here are some examples of topics that learners will explore within the broader interests.

- Scaffolding Children's Development and Learning
- How Children Grown and Develop Through Play
- Creating Environments That Encourage Child-Initiated Learning
- Connecting Mathematics to Teaching and Learning
- Using Assessment Information to Plan Experiences and Evaluate Development and Learning

The course includes a pre- and post-course survey to measure learners' knowledge at the beginning of the course and at the end of the course, as well as a downloadable study guide. Within the tutorials, knowledge check quizzes help reinforce learning.

Teaching Strategies, LLC, is accredited by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET). Teaching Strategies complies with the ANSI/IACET Standard, which is recognized internationally as a standard of excellence in instructional practices. As a result of this accreditation, Teaching Strategies is accredited to issue the IACET CEU.

Learners who successfully complete each of the 38 tutorials in this ten-hour (600 minutes) course, including answering all Knowledge Check questions correctly, correctly completing all interactives, and completing the extended response applications, will earn 1.0 Continuing Education Unit (CEU).

Course Requirements

Teaching Experience: This course is designed for education administrators at all levels of experience, from those who are just starting their practice to seasoned leaders seeking to refine their knowledge and skills.

Program/Classroom Application: The course includes a number of practical exercises that require learners to consider their own practice, reflect on their own philosophies and beliefs, and conduct focused observations of an early childhood classroom.
